This program will benefit your workplace by:

- Building resilient teams by equipping staff with effective self-regulation skills
- Optimising workplace performance when staff understand the effects of stress and how they respond
- Driving a positive workplace culture by equipping staff with strategies to handle difficult situations

By the end of the session staff will:

- Increase their understanding of stress and the effects it can have on them
- Understand stress tolerance and the ways we hurt or help our stress levels
- Identify areas of influence and control for individual stressors
- Learn simple strategies to respond to stress and identify when to seek help

“Working in aged care and supporting individuals with a variety of needs can create a stressful environment. This program gave us strategies to support and handle difficult situations.”
